

BCA Summer Camp Instructors '09

Week One: June 22-26

Full Day Camp (9am-4pm)

Clay and Craft Camp

CLASS CODE: 832510-1

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

GEORGE BREISCH GONZALEZ works as a painter, printmaker and ceramist. He received his BFA from Florida International University in Printmaking and Ceramics. He has exhibited his work in numerous shows throughout the southeast.

Morning Camps (9am-12pm)

Camp Tadpole, 9:30am-12pm

CLASS CODE: 832513-1

CATHERINE ABRAHAM is a working ceramic sculpture artist and studio potter. She received her BFA in graphic design from Buffalo State College and her MFA in ceramic sculpture from the University of Arizona. She is a certified art teacher and loves to teach people of ages and levels. Catherine is the Studio Manager for BCA's Print + Clay Studio.

DAN LEFRANCOIS graduated from the New England School of Design in 2002 with a BFA. He has worked as a designer for the Hartford's Children Theater in Connecticut and is very involved with theater and the art scene in Burlington. Dan directs and teaches an after school program called World of Art at Edmunds Middle School, works part time for King Street Youth Center and regularly works with the I.A.T.S.E. (Stage Hands Union) at the Flynn Theater. Check out Dan's painted murals located at WRUV in the new Davis Center and on an electric box across from City Market.

Itsy Bitsy Fashion Design

CLASS CODE: 832454-1

JOANNA ELLIOTT has a M.E.D. from the Tyler School of Art, Temple University, and a B.S. in Studio Art from Skidmore College. She has experience teaching in community art centers, public schools, and with teaching private lessons. She currently works in the Burlington School District. She also continues to do her own work in drawing and painting.

Japanese Anime

CLASS CODE: 832476-1

EMILY SCHMIDT has a BFA and MFA degree from The Savannah College of Art and Design. She currently teaches online art classes through The Art Institute of Pittsburgh and has taught classes in color theory, life drawing, concept development, mixed media and illustration. She is very passionate about comic books.

Teen Photo

CLASS CODE: 832212-1

JORDAN DOUGLAS teaches darkroom photography at St. Michael's College and Champlain College. He most often works with alternative printing techniques and has an interest in the photographic processes of the 19th Century.

Afternoon Camps (1-4pm)

Edible Art

CLASS CODE: 832485-1

JOANNA ELLIOTT has a M.E.D. from the Tyler School of Art, Temple University, and a B.S. in Studio Art from Skidmore College. She has experience teaching in community art centers, public schools, and with teaching private lessons. She currently works in the Burlington School District. She also continues to do her own work in drawing and painting.

Silkscreen T-Shirt Design

CLASS CODE: 832529-1

AMY WILD is a graduate of Denison University where she received her Bachelors of Fine Arts in Studio Art, concentrating in Printmaking and Bookmaking. She has been teaching at BCA for the past year. In the past she has taught numerous classes to all ages at The Museum of Fine Arts-Boston, The Chestnut Hill School, privately, and was a Denison University Teacher's Assistant. Amy hopes to become a printmaking professor in the near future.

Graphic Design

CLASS CODE: 832430-1

MICHELLE COLLING holds a BFA in Fine Art Photography from Minneapolis College of Art and Design. In addition to her photographic work, she designs greeting cards and custom invitations for her company, Pink Livingroom Press. Her greeting cards are sold internationally. She teaches graphic design and photography.

Week Two: June 29-July 3

Morning Camps (9am-12pm)

Camp Tadpole, 9:30am-12pm

CLASS CODE: 832513-2

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

KYRA BELLRICHARD has worked with children for over 12 years in schools and summer camps. She loves to share her passion in arts and craft, theater arts, leadership and the outdoors. Before joining the BCA Clay Studio, Kyra was sculpting with clay at a studio in Hawaii.

Illustrate it!

CLASS CODE: 832499-1

SARAH SPRAGUE has been playing with different types of art media for as long as she can remember. Black and white and digital photography, clay and metals are a few of her favorites. She received her Bachelors in Studio Art from the University of Vermont and later earned her Masters in Education from Johnson State College. Sarah is licensed K-12 in art and is currently teaching 8th graders.

Free Wheelin'

CLASS CODE: 832511-1

GEORGE BREISCH GONZALEZ works as a painter, printmaker and ceramist. He received his BFA from Florida International University in Printmaking and Ceramics. He has exhibited his work in numerous shows throughout the southeast.

DAN LEFRANCOIS graduated from the New England School of Design in 2002 with a BFA. He has worked as a designer for the Hartford's Children Theater in Connecticut and is very involved with theater and the art scene in Burlington. Dan directs and teaches an after school program called World of Art at Edmunds Middle School, works part time for King Street Youth Center and regularly works with the I.A.T.S.E. (Stage Hands Union) at the Flynn Theater. Check out Dan's painted murals located at WRUV in the new Davis Center and on an electric box across from City Market.

Silkscreen T-Shirt Design

CLASS CODE: 832529-2

AMY WILD is a graduate of Denison University where she received her Bachelors of Fine Arts in Studio Art, concentrating in Printmaking and Bookmaking. She has been teaching at BCA for the past year. In the past she has taught numerous classes to all ages at The Museum of Fine Arts-Boston, The Chestnut Hill School, privately, and was a Denison University Teacher's Assistant. Amy hopes to become a printmaking professor in the near future.

Landscape Photography

CLASS CODE: 832214-1

JORDAN DOUGLAS teaches darkroom photography at St. Michael's College and Champlain College. He most often works with alternative printing techniques and has an interest in the photographic processes of the 19th Century.

Afternoon Camps (1-4pm)

Free Wheelin'

CLASS CODE: 832511-2

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

CHRISTOPHER MONAHAN attended the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. He has been teaching pottery classes in Burlington for two years. His work was exhibited in the Exposure II exhibit at BCA's Firehouse Gallery.

Itsy Bitsy Sculpture

CLASS CODE: 832495-1

COURTNEY RECKORD loves the process of transformation. Whether it is transforming ingredients into delicious meals, yarn into sweaters or colors into a completed painting. She is currently completing her Masters of Arts in Education at St. Michael's College.

Cartooning

CLASS CODE: 832438-1

SARAH SPRAGUE has been playing with different types of art media for as long as she can remember. Black and white and digital photography, clay and metals are a few of her favorites. She received her Bachelors in Studio Art from the University of Vermont and later earned her Masters in Education from Johnson State College. Sarah is licensed K-12 in art and is currently teaching 8th graders.

Young Silversmiths

CLASS CODE: 832515-1

STANTON EDDY is an avid amateur chess player and has been working with youth in Vermont for twenty-two years in both schools and at summer camps. He has taught chess, ceramic and silver-smithing camps at BCA for over four years. Stan and his wife Tamara are dorm-parents at Rock Point School in Burlington.

DAN LEFRANCOIS graduated from the New England School of Design in 2002 with a BFA. He has worked as a designer for the Hartford's Children Theater in Connecticut and is very involved with theater and the art scene in Burlington. Dan directs and teaches an after school program called World of Art at Edmunds Middle School, works part time for King Street Youth Center and regularly works with the I.A.T.S.E. (Stage Hands Union) at the Flynn Theater. Check out Dan's painted murals located at WRUV in the new Davis Center and on an electric box across from City Market.

Week Three: July 6-10 Morning Camps (9am-12pm)

Camp Tadpole, 9:30am-12pm

CLASS CODE: 832513-3

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

CATHERINE ABRAHAM is a working ceramic sculpture artist and studio potter. She received her BFA in graphic design from Buffalo State College and her MFA in ceramic sculpture from the University of Arizona. She is a certified art teacher and loves to teach people of ages and levels. Catherine is the Studio Manager for BCA's Print + Clay Studio.

Clay: Past thru Present

CLASS CODE: 832532-1

SOPHIE EISNER is a sculptor and potter recently relocated from Minnesota where she was employed by the art department for Carleton College. She has been working with clay for over ten years. Sophie has taught children in clay and skiing.

CHRISTOPHER MONAHAN attended the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. He has been teaching pottery classes in Burlington for two years. His work was exhibited in the Exposure II exhibit at BCA's Firehouse Gallery.

Afternoon Camps (1-4pm)

Silkscreen Design

CLASS CODE: 832316-1

GEORGE BREISCH GONZALEZ works as a painter, printmaker and ceramist. He received his BFA from Florida International University in Printmaking and Ceramics. He has exhibited his work in numerous shows throughout the southeast.

Week Four: July 13-17 Morning Camps (9am-12pm)

Camp Tadpole, 9:30am-12pm

CLASS CODE: 832513-4

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

DAN LEFRANCOIS graduated from the New England School of Design in 2002 with a BFA. He has worked as a designer for the Hartford's Children Theater in Connecticut and is very involved with theater and the art scene in Burlington. Dan directs and teaches an after school program called World of Art at Edmunds Middle School, works part time for King Street Youth Center and regularly works with the I.A.T.S.E. (Stage Hands Union) at the Flynn Theater. Check out Dan's painted murals located at WRUV in the new Davis Center and on an electric box across from City Market.

Itsy Bitsy Fashion Design

CLASS CODE: 832454-2

KATARINA MERNICKY has a BA in Art Education from the University of Vermont and a MA in Education in the Arts from Saint Michael's College. She is certified to teach visual arts K-12 and taught art at Fairfield Center School for five years. Katarina currently works as a full time art teacher at Saint Albans Town School teaching grades 5-

8 and is involved in many after school art programs. She is originally from Bratislava, Slovakia.

Sew it!

CLASS CODE: 832498-1

LAURIE SHELTON has been sewing since she was eight years old, making clothes and quilts, pillows, tote bags and decorative accessories, as well as hemming and mending for friends and family. She likes to collect fabric, buttons and trims and is especially fond of cotton batiks. Laurie has been teaching children for thirty years and she enjoys sharing her passion for artistic expression with them, particularly sewing and hand papermaking.

Free Wheelin'

CLASS CODE: 832511-3

JEREMY AYERS is a local potter who shows his work both locally and nationally. He received his BFA in sculpture from the Massachusetts College of Art in 1998. He teaches functional ceramics to Saint Michaels College students and adults in the community.

GEORGE BREISCH GONZALEZ works as a painter, printmaker and ceramist. He received his BFA from Florida International University in Printmaking and Ceramics. He has exhibited his work in numerous shows throughout the southeast.

Teen Photo

CLASS CODE: 832212-2

ALLISON HALE holds a BA in Studio Art from the University of Vermont. She has been a working member of the Firehouse Community Darkroom since 2006 and has exhibited her work locally.

Afternoon Camps (1-4pm)

Edible Art

CLASS CODE: 832485-2

COURTNEY RECKORD loves the process of transformation. Whether it is transforming ingredients into delicious meals, yarn into sweaters or colors into a completed painting. She is currently completing her Masters of Arts in Education at St. Michael's College.

Free Wheelin'

CLASS CODE: 832511-4

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

CHRISTOPHER MONAHAN attended the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. He has been teaching pottery classes in Burlington for two years. His work was exhibited in the Exposure II exhibit at BCA's Firehouse Gallery.

Sew it!

CLASS CODE: 832498-2

LAURIE SHELTON has been sewing since she was eight years old, making clothes and quilts, pillows, tote bags and decorative accessories, as well as hemming and mending for friends and family. She likes to collect fabric, buttons and trims and is especially fond of cotton batiks. Laurie has been teaching children for thirty years and she enjoys sharing her passion for artistic expression with them, particularly sewing and hand papermaking.

Silkscreen T-Shirt Design

CLASS CODE: 832529-3

AMY WILD is a graduate of Denison University where she received her Bachelors of Fine Arts in Studio Art, concentrating in Printmaking and Bookmaking. She has been teaching at BCA for the past year. In the past she has taught numerous classes to all ages at The Museum of Fine Arts-Boston, The Chestnut Hill School, privately, and was a Denison University Teacher's Assistant. Amy hopes to become a printmaking professor in the near future.

Knight and Castle Chess

CLASS CODE: 832519-1

STANTON EDDY is an avid amateur chess player and has been working with youth in Vermont for twenty-two years in both schools and at summer camps. He has taught chess, ceramic and silver-smithing camps at BCA for over four years. Stan and his wife Tamara are dorm-parents at Rock Point School in Burlington.

DAN LEFRANCOIS graduated from the New England School of Design in 2002 with a BFA. He has worked as a designer for the Hartford's Children Theater in Connecticut and is very involved with theater and the art scene in Burlington. Dan directs and teaches an after school program called World of Art at Edmunds Middle School, works part time for King Street Youth Center and regularly works with the I.A.T.S.E. (Stage Hands Union) at the Flynn Theater. Check out Dan's painted murals located at WRUV in the new Davis Center and on an electric box across from City Market.

Week Five: July 20-24
Morning Camps (9am-12pm)

Camp Tadpole, 9:30am-12pm

CLASS CODE: 832513-5

TAMARA EDDY is BCA's Clay Studio Director and Education Coordinator. Tamara received a BA in Early Childhood Development and is a photographer as well as a certified precious metal clay (PMC) instructor. She enjoys working with people and exploring art through creative process.

Junior Crafters

CLASS CODE: 832512-1

DAN LEFRANCOIS graduated from the New England School of Design in 2002 with a BFA. He has worked as a designer for the Hartford's Children Theater in Connecticut and is very involved with theater and the art scene in Burlington. Dan directs and teaches an after school program called World of Art at Edmunds Middle School, works part time for King Street Youth Center and regularly works with the I.A.T.S.E. (Stage Hands Union) at the Flynn Theater. Check out Dan's painted murals located at WRUV in the new Davis Center and on an electric box across from City Market.

KYRA BELLRICHARD has worked with children for over 12 years in schools and summer camps. She loves to share her passion in arts and craft, theater arts, leadership and the outdoors. Before joining the BCA Clay Studio, Kyra was sculpting with clay at a studio in Hawaii.

Illustrate it!

CLASS CODE: 832499-2

AMY WILD is a graduate of Denison University where she received her Bachelors of Fine Arts in Studio Art, concentrating in Printmaking and Bookmaking. She has been teaching at BCA for the past year. In the past she has taught numerous classes to all ages at The Museum of Fine Arts-Boston, The Chestnut Hill School, privately, and was a Denison University Teacher's Assistant. Amy hopes to become a printmaking professor in the near future.

Savory Edible Art

CLASS CODE: 832485-3

SARAH SPRAGUE has been playing with different types of art media for as long as she can remember. Black and white and digital photography, clay and metals are a few of her favorites. She received her Bachelors in Studio Art from the University of Vermont and later earned her Masters in Education from Johnson State College. Sarah is licensed K-12 in art and is currently teaching 8th graders.

Photo Fun!

CLASS CODE: 832215-1

ANN BARLOW holds an MFA in Photography from the University of Connecticut and currently runs the Photo Co-op at the Living and Learning Center at the University of Vermont. She is an Adjunct Faculty member at the Community College of Vermont and has exhibited nationally.

Afternoon Camps (1-4pm)

Itsy Bitsy Sculpture

CLASS CODE: 832495-2

COURTNEY RECKORD loves the process of transformation. Whether it is transforming ingredients into delicious meals, yarn into sweaters or colors into a completed painting. She is currently completing her Masters of Arts in Education at St. Michael's College.

Sweet Edible Art

CLASS CODE: 832485-4

SARAH SPRAGUE has been playing with different types of art media for as long as she can remember. Black and white and digital photography, clay and metals are a few of her favorites. She received her Bachelors in Studio Art from the University of Vermont and later earned her Masters in Education from Johnson State College. Sarah is licensed K-12 in art and is currently teaching 8th graders.

Claymation

CLASS CODE: 832478-1

AMY WILD is a graduate of Denison University where she received her Bachelors of Fine Arts in Studio Art, concentrating in Printmaking and Bookmaking. She has been teaching at BCA for the past year. In the past she has taught numerous classes to all ages at The Museum of Fine Arts-Boston, The Chestnut Hill School, privately, and was a Denison University Teacher's Assistant. Amy hopes to become a printmaking professor in the near future.

Free Wheelin'

CLASS CODE: 832511-5

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

CHRISTOPHER MONAHAN attended the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. He has been teaching pottery classes in Burlington for two years. His work was exhibited in the Exposure II exhibit at BCA's Firehouse Gallery.

Silkscreen Design

CLASS CODE: 832316-2

GEORGE BREISCH GONZALEZ works as a painter, printmaker and ceramist. He received his BFA from Florida International University in Printmaking and Ceramics. He has exhibited his work in numerous shows throughout the southeast.

Week Six: July 27-31 Morning Camps (9am-12pm)

Camp Tadpole, 9:30am-12pm

CLASS CODE: 832513-6

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

CATHERINE ABRAHAM is a working ceramic sculpture artist and studio potter. She received her BFA in graphic design from Buffalo State College and her MFA in ceramic sculpture from the University of Arizona. She is a certified art teacher and loves to teach people of ages and levels. Catherine is the Studio Manager for BCA's Print + Clay Studio.

Illustrate it!

CLASS CODE: 832499-3

KATARINA MERNICKY has a BA in Art Education from the University of Vermont and a MA in Education in the Arts from Saint Michael's College. She is certified to teach visual arts K-12 and taught art at Fairfield Center School for five years. Katarina currently works as a full time art teacher at Saint Albans Town School teaching grades 5-8 and is involved in many after school art programs. She is originally from Bratislava, Slovakia.

Japanese Anime

CLASS CODE: 832476-2

EMILY SCHMIDT has a BFA and MFA degree from The Savannah College of Art and Design. She currently teaches online art classes through The Art Institute of Pittsburgh and has taught classes in color theory, life drawing, concept development, mixed media and illustration. She is very passionate about comic books.

Advanced Clay and Craft

CLASS CODE: 832530-1

GEORGE BREISCH GONZALEZ works as a painter, printmaker and ceramist. He received his BFA from Florida International University in Printmaking and Ceramics. He has exhibited his work in numerous shows throughout the southeast.

DAN LEFRANCOIS graduated from the New England School of Design in 2002 with a BFA. He has worked as a designer for the Hartford's Children Theater in Connecticut and is very involved with theater and the art scene in Burlington. Dan directs and teaches an after school program called World of Art at Edmunds Middle School, works part time for King Street Youth Center and regularly works with the I.A.T.S.E. (Stage Hands Union) at the Flynn Theater. Check out Dan's painted murals located at WRUV in the new Davis Center and on an electric box across from City Market.

Teen Photo

CLASS CODE: 832212-3

MICHELLE COLLING holds a BFA in Photography from Minneapolis College of Art and Design and currently runs her own invitation and greeting card business, Pink Livingroom Press. She works in digital color and has exhibited nationally.

Afternoon Camps (1-4pm)

Itsy Bitsy Sculpture

CLASS CODE: 832495-3

KATARINA MERNICKY has a BA in Art Education from the University of Vermont and a MA in Education in the Arts from Saint Michael's College. She is certified to teach visual arts K-12 and taught art at Fairfield Center School for five years. Katarina currently works as a full time art teacher at Saint Albans Town School teaching grades 5-8 and is involved in many after school art programs. She is originally from Bratislava, Slovakia.

Free Wheelin' Advanced
CLASS CODE: 832520-1

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

CHRISTOPHER MONAHAN attended the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. He has been teaching pottery classes in Burlington for two years. His work was exhibited in the Exposure II exhibit at BCA's Firehouse Gallery.

Silkscreen T-Shirt Design
CLASS CODE: 832529-4

AMY WILD is a graduate of Denison University where she received her Bachelors of Fine Arts in Studio Art, concentrating in Printmaking and Bookmaking. She has been teaching at BCA for the past year. In the past she has taught numerous classes to all ages at The Museum of Fine Arts-Boston, The Chestnut Hill School, privately, and was a Denison University Teacher's Assistant. Amy hopes to become a printmaking professor in the near future.

Advanced Japanese Anime
CLASS CODE: 832477-1

EMILY SCHMIDT has a BFA and MFA degree from The Savannah College of Art and Design. She currently teaches online art classes through The Art Institute of Pittsburgh and has taught classes in color theory, life drawing, concept development, mixed media and illustration. She is very passionate about comic books.

Week Seven: Aug. 3-7 Morning Camps (9am-12pm)

Break it, Build it!
CLASS CODE: 832457-1

JOURNEY BLAIN has made and taught art all over the world. Her most recent excursion was to teach at a school in Israel. Journey currently is an art teacher at Brookfield School. She's an excitable and encouraging teacher who appreciates creativity and exploration in art.

Illustrate it!
CLASS CODE: 832499-4

JENNIE RENNA grew up on the edge of the Shenandoah Valley in Northern Virginia riding horses and looking at the stars. Jennie has always had a keen interest in and appreciation for nature. She attended Virginia Commonwealth University for several years studying fine arts and painting. Later, Jennie moved to Massachusetts and began working in Special Education. She loves working with all children and teaching them the art behind the natural world.

Clay, Clay, Clay

CLASS CODE: 832526-1

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

GEORGE BREISCH GONZALEZ works as a painter, printmaker and ceramist. He received his BFA from Florida International University in Printmaking and Ceramics. He has exhibited his work in numerous shows throughout the southeast.

Claymation

CLASS CODE: 832478-2

AMY WILD is a graduate of Denison University where she received her Bachelors of Fine Arts in Studio Art, concentrating in Printmaking and Bookmaking. She has been teaching at BCA for the past year. In the past she has taught numerous classes to all ages at The Museum of Fine Arts-Boston, The Chestnut Hill School, privately, and was a Denison University Teacher's Assistant. Amy hopes to become a printmaking professor in the near future.

BCA and ECHO Lake Aquarium and Science Center present:

NEW! Nature Photography

CLASS CODE: 832216-1

MICHELLE COLLING holds a BFA in Photography from Minneapolis College of Art and Design and currently runs her own invitation and greeting card business, Pink Livingroom Press. She works in digital color and has exhibited nationally.

Afternoon Camps (1-4pm)

BCA and ECHO Lake Aquarium and Science Center present:

Lift Off!

CLASS CODE: 832404-1

JENNIE RENNA grew up on the edge of the Shenandoah Valley in Northern Virginia riding horses and looking at the stars. Jennie has always had a keen interest in and appreciation for nature. She attended Virginia Commonwealth University for several years studying fine arts and painting. Later, Jennie moved to Massachusetts and began working in Special Education. She loves working with all children and teaching them the art behind the natural world.

Junior Crafters

CLASS CODE: 832512-2

DAN LEFRANCOIS graduated from the New England School of Design in 2002 with a BFA. He has worked as a designer for the Hartford's Children Theater in Connecticut and is very involved with theater and the art scene in Burlington. Dan directs and teaches an after school program called World of Art at Edmunds Middle School, works part time for King Street Youth Center and regularly works with the I.A.T.S.E. (Stage Hands Union) at the Flynn Theater. Check out Dan's painted murals located at WRUV in the new Davis Center and on an electric box across from City Market.

KYRA BELLRICHARD has worked with children for over 12 years in schools and summer camps. She loves to share her passion in arts and craft, theater arts, leadership and the outdoors. Before joining the BCA Clay Studio, Kyra was sculpting with clay at a studio in Hawaii.

Break it, Build it!

CLASS CODE: 832457-2

JOURNEY BLAIN has made and taught art all over the world. Her most recent excursion was to teach at a school in Israel. Journey currently is an art teacher at Brookfield School. She's an excitable and encouraging teacher who appreciates creativity and exploration in art.

Emerging Artists

CLASS CODE: 832483-1

JENNIFER BLAIR holds an M.Ed in Art Integration from St. Michael's College. She is a local artist focusing on printmaking and has been teaching art for 15 years. She has taught art lovers of all ages at CCV, local private and public schools, the Fleming Museum, Shelburne Museum and community based programs.

Week Eight: Aug. 10-14

NEW! Extended Full Day Camp (9am-5:15pm)

BCA and Burlington Parks and Recreation present:

NEW! Artventure

9am- 5:15pm

Ages 6-8 CLASS CODE: 832482-1

Ages 9-11 CLASS CODE: 832482-2

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

CATHERINE ABRAHAM is a working ceramic sculpture artist and studio potter. She received her BFA in graphic design from Buffalo State College and her MFA in ceramic sculpture from the University of Arizona. She is a certified art teacher and loves to teach people of ages and levels. Catherine is the Studio Manager for BCA's Print + Clay Studio.

GEORGE BREISCH GONZALEZ works as a painter, printmaker and ceramist. He received his BFA from Florida International University in Printmaking and Ceramics. He has exhibited his work in numerous shows throughout the southeast.

Morning Camps (9am-12pm)

Clay Creatures!

CLASS CODE: 832533-1

DAN LEFRANCOIS graduated from the New England School of Design in 2002 with a BFA. He has worked as a designer for the Hartford's Children Theater in Connecticut and is very involved with theater and the art scene in Burlington. Dan directs and teaches an after school program called World of Art at Edmunds Middle School, works part time for King Street Youth Center and regularly works with the I.A.T.S.E. (Stage Hands Union) at the Flynn Theater. Check out Dan's painted murals located at WRUV in the new Davis Center and on an electric box across from City Market.

KYRA BELLRICHARD has worked with children for over 12 years in schools and summer camps. She loves to share her passion in arts and craft, theater arts, leadership and the outdoors. Before joining the BCA Clay Studio, Kyra was sculpting with clay at a studio in Hawaii.

BCA and ECHO Lake Aquarium and Science Center present:

NEW! Kinetic Design

CLASS CODE: 832490-1

JENNIE RENNA grew up on the edge of the Shenandoah Valley in Northern Virginia riding horses and looking at the stars. Jennie has always had a keen interest in and appreciation for nature. She attended Virginia Commonwealth University for several years studying fine arts and painting. Later, Jennie moved to Massachusetts and began working in Special Education. She loves working with all children and teaching them the art behind the natural world.

Advanced Teen Photo

CLASS CODE: 832213-1

ANN BARLOW holds an MFA in Photography from the University of Connecticut and currently runs the Photo Co-op at the Living and Learning Center at the University of Vermont. She is an Adjunct Faculty member at the Community College of Vermont and has exhibited nationally.

Afternoon Camps (1-4pm)

BCA and ECHO Lake Aquarium and Science Center present:

Lift Off!

CLASS CODE: 832404-2

JENNIE RENNA grew up on the edge of the Shenandoah Valley in Northern Virginia riding horses and looking at the stars. Jennie has always had a keen interest in and appreciation for nature. She attended Virginia Commonwealth University for several years studying fine arts and painting. Later, Jennie moved to Massachusetts and began working in Special Education. She loves working with all children and teaching them the art behind the natural world.

Clay, Clay, Clay

CLASS CODE: 832526-2

GEORGE BREISCH GONZALEZ works as a painter, printmaker and ceramist. He received his BFA from Florida International University in Printmaking and Ceramics. He has exhibited his work in numerous shows throughout the southeast.

KIM O'BRIEN is a local Burlington artist with nine years of ceramic experience. Kim is a regular instructor for the BCA Clay Studio and teaches after school classes and private lessons. Her artwork is on display in many galleries and venues in Vermont.

Graphic Design

CLASS CODE: 832430-2

MICHELLE COLLING holds a BFA in Fine Art Photography from Minneapolis College of Art and Design. In addition to her photographic work, she designs greeting cards and custom invitations for her company, Pink Livingroom Press. Her greeting cards are sold internationally. She teaches graphic design and photography.